- (b) Home Institution: MU
- (c) Host Institution: SJTU

2. PRINCIPLE AND SCOPE

The DDP is established in the area of Chinese Language. The admitted students will go to the Host Institution from the fourth to seventh semester of their undergraduate study for coursework and research, and then return to their Home Institution to complete their degree theses. The admitted students will be registered with both MU and SJTU as full-time students. Their completion of credits and academic performance will be examined to the standards of both Parties. #### 3. SELECTION AND ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

- 3.1 Current bachelor's degree students in their first year in the CHINESE LANGUAGE fields at MU are eligible to apply for the DDP.
- 3.2 The eligible students can apply to his/her Home Institution, which will screen and recommend the potential candidates to the Host Institution. 8.2 The tuition fees related to extended study at the Host Institution (over four semesters) should be paid to the Host Institution.

8.3 Accommodation and all living expenses, including medical/health insurance will be borne by the student. During the admitted student's study at the Host Institution, he/she must purchase insurance as required by the regulation of the Host Institution. The student may apply for scholarships or assistantships available at either Party.
