CDP Students Create Motion Graphics for Thailand Philharmonic Orchestra

On 17th- 18th June 2022, a group of students from Communication Design Program (CDP), Mahidol University International College (MUIC) created the motion graphics and animation for the Thailand Philharmonic Orchestra's "Metropolis Concert" at Prince Mahidol Hall, Mahidol University, Salaya campus. Based on the first Superman comic books, the "Metropolis Concert" incorporates jazz, rock, funk, and a variety of other sounds to bring the stories to life as a full symphony orchestra.

Prof. Chulathida Chomchai, MUIC Dean, attended this noteworthy event. This is the second collaboration between the College of Music and MUIC's CDP which allowed students to work on a real-world project, transforming abstract ideas into creative media forms.
