

Scan QR Code for registration

Mahidol University Participated in 2024 Education Conference of “Belt and Road” International Medical Education Alliance (BRIMEA), in People’s Republic of China

On 26th - 28th June 2024, Mahidol University, in Cooperation with Peking University Health Science Center, Hosted “The 2nd Forum on China - ASEAN Cooperation in Public Health & Annual Assembly of China - ASEAN University Consortium on Medicine and Health”, themed “Innovations in Development Cooperation for Medical Devices and Technology, Cooperation and Development of China - ASEAN University Consortium on Medicine and Health”. On this occasion, Prof. Dr. Pattarachai Kiratisin, M.D., Ph.D., Vice President for Research, Mahidol University, along with Dr. Li Song, China Women’s Federation, Dr. Amanda Bissex, Deputy Representative to China (UNICEF), and Prof. Baojian Chen, Executive Vice Chair of Peking University Council, altogether delivered opening remarks.

In this regard, Prof. Apichat Asavamongkolkul, M.D., Dean of the Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Assoc. Prof. Prapat Wanitpongpan, M.D., Deputy Dean for Corporate Communication and International Relations, Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Asst. Prof. Suchin Worawichawong, M.D., Deputy Dean for International Relations, Faculty of Medicine Ramathibodi Hospital, Asst. Prof. Dr. Arthit Phosri, Department of Environmental Health Sciences, Faculty of Public Health, Assoc. Prof. Kanitha Chamroonsawasdi, Department of Family Health, Faculty of Public Health, together with faculties of Mahidol University and the representatives from educational institutions, international organizations, medical and public health institutions, and other organizations around the world, participated in the mentioned forums in Beijing, People’s Republic of China.

The 2nd Forum on China - ASEAN Cooperation in Public Health & Annual Assembly of China - ASEAN University Consortium on Medicine and Health was organized during the 26th - 28th June 2024, with the cooperation between Mahidol University, and Peking University Health Science Center, People’s Republic of China. The purpose of these forums was to serve as a platform for knowledge sharing on medical and public health, and promoting the development cooperation of innovation, technology and medical devices among the consortium members, comprising 22 universities from ASEAN Countries and 21 universities from People’s Republic of China.

Mahidol University discussed potential academic and research collaborations with the representative from King’s College London, United Kingdom

On 21st June 2024, Assoc. Prof. Nopraeue Sajjarax Dhirathiti, Ph.D., Vice President for International Relations and Corporate Communication, Mahidol University, welcomed Mr. Edward Danks, Partnerships Manager (China, East & Southeast Asia), King’s College London, the United Kingdom, to jointly discuss potential academic and research collaborations, including the collaborations on Biomedical Engineering, Cancer, Geriatrics, and Palliative Care, the cooperation on the exchange of Visiting Professors, the Cotutelle and Joint Supervision Program, the student exchange programs, and short-term summer programs. This meeting took place at the OSM 3 Meeting Room, Office of the President, Mahidol University, Salaya Campus.

Ramathibodi School of Nursing, Faculty of Medicine Ramathibodi Hospital, Mahidol University, organized “The Cultural Presentations and Activities.”

On 19th June 2024, International Relations Unit, Ramathibodi School of Nursing, Faculty of Medicine Ramathibodi Hospital, Mahidol University, organized “The Cultural Presentations and Activities” for Dr. Heike Roth, a Course Director of the Bachelor of Midwifery and 13 Midwifery students from University of Technology Sydney, Australia, who have a study visit under the student exchange program from 10th - 21st June 2024.

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Srisamorn Phumonsakul, Chair from the Division of Maternal Newborn Nursing and Midwifery, instructors from the Division of Maternal Newborn Nursing and Midwifery, and first and second-year Ramathibodi nursing students in the Bachelor of Nursing Science Program, joined the event to build a good relationship between the two institutions.

The event featured cultural presentations, traditional games, and dances representing Thai and Australian cultures, creating a joyful and warm atmosphere for all participants. At the Activity Room, M floor, Medical Learning Resource Center and Ramathibodi School of Nursing Building.