Clause 7. Rates for Manuscript Preparation Fees

The University shall grant Manuscript Preparation Fees in the amount actually paid, excepting the University specifies otherwise by issuing Mahidol University announcement. The amount of grant shall be according to the ceiling allocated to the Research Management and Development Division by the University.

Clause 8. Submission of the request for Manuscript Preparation Fees grant

A person eligible to request a Manuscript Preparation Fees grant under the Announcement shall submit a request on the website of Research Management and Development Division, <http://op.mahidol.ac.th/ra/budget-pub/>, with the following supporting documents:

- (1) A letter of intent requesting a Manuscript Preparation Fees grant under Clause 6 (Form No. FM-RPS-01)
- (2) Draft manuscript (docx or doc file format only)
- (3) Evidence of the journal's Peer Review process
- (4) Documentation from Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) to confirm the journal's quartile ranking as of the date of application for Manuscript Preparation Fee support, according to Clause 6.3
- (5) A letter of consent under Clause 4.2 (Form No. FM-RPS-01)
- (6) A copy of appointment order or certificate specifying responsibility for research activities, in the case where a person eligible to request a grant is a full-time consultant of the faculty/ college/ institute.

The University may request additional relevant documents to be submitted within the time specified by the University.

Clause 9. Selection and payment

9.1 Research Management and Development Division, the Office of the President, shall examine the qualifications under Clause 4 and Clause 6 and the documents under Clause 8 then propose a list of persons who are entitled for a Manuscript Preparation Fees grant to the President or a person assigned by the President to give approval, and inform the result to the persons who are entitled for a Manuscript Preparation Fees grant.

9.2 The University shall approve and select an expert to prepare the manuscript and the person granted for Manuscript Preparation Fees shall cooperate with work involved with a full capability within the time period specified.

9.3 The University shall carry out a payment to a person preparing a manuscript in the amount granted by the University.

Clause 10. If an article of a person granted for Manuscript Preparation Fees is not published or is published but in a journal that not ranked in Q1, the University shall collect expenses occurred from granting of Manuscript Preparation Fees from a person requesting Manuscript Preparation Fees.

Chapter 3

Article Processing Fees

Clause 11. An article meeting criteria for an Article Processing Fees grant:

11.1 Being an article that a publishing journal categorizes as an original research article or review article, including a research article in other formats which is a full research article pursuant to a full-length research format. If a publishing journal does not specify a type, it shall refer to a document type in the Scopus database. It shall not include a short/brief article or report, mini-review, letter, correspondence, communication, editorial article and personal view or equivalent.

11.2 Being an article that correctly specifies the name of a faculty/ college/ institute and Mahidol University as an affiliation of corresponding author and first author. Corresponding author and first author may have other affiliations in addition to Mahidol University (more than one affiliation).

If it is an article of a sole corresponding author or a sole first author under paragraph one (with the other authors on the paper having an affiliation other than Mahidol University), the University shall grant only the half amount of Article Processing Fees and a person requesting a grant shall be responsible for the remaining half amount. The disbursement shall be according to Clause 13.2.

11.3 Being an article to be published in the format of open access in an international-level journal which its subject category is ranked in Q1 referring to Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) database of the latest year of the date of submission or the date of acceptance for publication, as shown in evidence of acceptance or as specified in the article.

11.4 The application for Article Processing Charge support must be for an article that has fully passed Peer Review.

11.5 Not being an article published in any journal of Multidisciplinary Digital Publishing Institute (MDPI), Frontiers Media S.A. and Hindawi (Hindawi Publishing Corporation). It must also not be a journal that is likely to be removed from the database or a journal with quality issues, as listed on the Research Management and Development Division 's website.

11.6 Being an article that is not granted Article Processing Fees by other institutions inside and outside the University, in the total amount exceeding the amount shown in an invoice or receipt.

If an Article Processing Fees grant in part is approved by other institutions under paragraph one, the remaining Article Processing Fees may be requested from the University under the Announcement by submitting evidence of approval and the amount of money approved. The disbursement shall be according to Clause 13.2.

Clause 12. Rates for Article Processing Fees

12.1 For articles published in Q1 level journals (excluding Top10), the University supports the Article Processing Charge at the rate specified by the journal, but not exceeding 150,000 Baht per article.

12.2 For articles published in Top10 or Top1 level journals, the University supports the full amount of the Article Processing Charge at the rate specified by the journal.

The amount of support depends on the budget allocated to the Research Administration Division by the University. An exception is the support for the Article Processing Charge under Clause 13.3, which shall follow the requirements of the Read & Publish (Transformative Agreement).

Clause 13. Submission of the request for Article Processing Fees grant

13.1 If it is intended for the University to make a payment of Article Processing Fees directly to a journal, when the journal accepts publication, a person entitled to request Article Processing Fees shall submit a request for Article Processing Fees under the Announcement and does not have to make a payment by himself or herself. The person shall submit the request on the website of Research Management and Development Division, <http://op.mahidol.ac.th/ra/budget-pub/>, with the following supporting documents:

(1) A letter of intent requesting Article Processing Fees according to Clause 11 (Form No. FM-RPS-02)

(2) Manuscript submitted to a journal

(3) Evidence of the article's Peer Review

(4) Evidence of acceptance from a journal

(5) Documentation from Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) to confirm the journal's quartile ranking as of the date of submission or acceptance, according to Clause 11.3

(6) Invoice issued by a journal that specifies Mahidol University as the affiliation of the publishing author. The name of the administrative unit or related personnel may be added

(7) A letter of consent under Clause 4.2 (Form No. FM-RPS-02)

(8) A copy of appointment order or certificate specifying responsibility for research activities, in the case where a person eligible to request a grant is a full-time consultant of the faculty/ college/ institute.

The University may request additional relevant documents to be submitted within the time specified by the University.

13.2 If it is intended to make a payment for Article Processing Fees to a journal or request an Article Processing Fees grant in part, under Clause 11.2 paragraph two or Clause 11.5 paragraph two, a person entitled to request Article Processing Fees shall submit a request for Article Processing Fees under the Announcement after making the payment to the journal. The request shall be submitted on the website of Research Management and Development Division, <http://op.mahidol.ac.th/ra/budget-pub/>, no more than 90 days from the date the article is first published in a journal, with the following supporting documents:

(1) A letter of intent requesting Article Processing Fees according to Clause 11 (Form No. FM-RPS-02)

(2) Manuscript submitted to a journal

(3) Evidence of the article's Peer Review

(4) Evidence of acceptance from a journal

(5) Documentation from Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) to confirm the journal's quartile ranking as of the date of submission or acceptance, according to Clause 11.3

(6) Invoice issued by a journal and evidence of the payment of Article Processing Fees made to a journal or receipt with evidence of currency rates of a transaction bank or currency rates of Bank of Thailand on the day, month and year that stated on evidence of payment or bank statement which shows a payment of Article Processing Fees made to a journal.

(7) A letter of consent under Clause 4.2 (Form No. FM-RPS-02)

(8) Evidence of approval for an Article Processing Fees grant given by other institutions inside and outside the University, in case of receiving an Article Processing Fees grant in part, under Clause 11.6 paragraph two.

(9) A copy of appointment order or certificate specifying responsibility for research activities, in the case where a person eligible to request a grant is a full-time consultant of the faculty/ college/ institute

The University may request additional relevant documents to be submitted within the time specified by the University.

13.3 In case where it is intended to claim the entitlement of Article Processing Fees from Read & Publish (Transformative Agreement). When an Article Processing Fee is requested in the publisher's system, the Research Management and Development Division will consider it based on the criteria in Clauses 11.2 and 11.3, the quartile of the journal referring to the Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR), as of the date the Article Processing Fee is requested in the publisher's system, and proceed with an Article Processing Fee within the publisher's system. The eligible author does not need to submit a request for Article Processing Fee to the Research Management and Development Division.

13.4 The submission for requesting Article Processing Fees under Clause 13.1 and Clause 13.2 shall not be an article published in a journal that grants the entitlement for publication under Read & Publish (Transformative Agreement).

Clause 14. Selection and payment of Article Processing Fees

14.1 Research Management and Development Division, the Office of the President, shall examine the qualifications under Clause 4 and Clause 11 and the documents under Clause 13 then propose a list of persons who are entitled for an Article Processing Fees grant to the President or a person assigned by the President to give approval, and inform the result to the persons who are entitled to an Article Processing Fees grant.

14.2 The University shall carry out a payment to a person sending an invoice of Article Processing Fees under Clause 13.1 and directly make a payment to a person granted Article Processing Fees in the case of requesting an article processing charges grant under Clause 13.2.

Clause 15. If the University examined and found that a person requesting Article Processing Fees did not have qualifications as specified in Clause 4 or an article did not meet criteria as specified in Clause 11 or Clause 22 of the Announcement, the University reserves its right to reclaim money and expenses occurred from granting Article Processing Fees from a person requesting for Article Processing Fees.

Chapter 4

Reward

Clause 16. An article meeting criteria for a Reward

16.1 Being an article categorized as an original research article or review article including a research article in any format that is a full-research article pursuant to a full-length research format. If a publishing journal does not specify a type, it shall refer to a document type in the Scopus database. It shall not include a short/brief article or report, mini-review, letter, correspondence, communication, editorial article and personal view or equivalent.

16.2 Being an article that correctly specifies the name of a faculty/ college/ institute and Mahidol University as an affiliation of corresponding author and first author.

Corresponding author and first author may have other affiliations in addition to Mahidol University (more than one affiliation).

If it is an article of a sole corresponding author or first author under paragraph one (with the other authors on the paper having an affiliation other than Mahidol University), the university shall grant only the half amount of Reward rates under Clause 17.

16.3 Being an article published in an international-level journal which its subject category is ranked as Q1, the level of journals under Clause 17 shall refer to Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) of the latest year of the date of submission or the date of acceptance for publication, as shown in evidence of acceptance or as specified in the article.

16.4 The application for a reward must be for an article that has fully passed Peer Review.

16.5 Not being an article published in any journal of Multidisciplinary Digital Publishing Institute (MDPI), Frontiers Media S.A. and Hindawi (Hindawi Publishing Corporation). It must also not be a journal that is likely to be removed from the database or a journal with quality issues, as listed on the Research Management and Development Division 's website.

16.6 Being an article that is not submitted to request a Reward which is the same as announced in the University announcement but it does not exclude any entitlement to request other rewards from the faculty/ college/ institute of the University or institutions outside the University.

Clause 17. The University shall grant a Reward for an article that meets criteria in the following rates:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| (1) Journal in Top 1 | 80,000 Thai Baht/article |
| (2) Journal in Top 10 (not Top 1) | 30,000 Thai Baht/article |
| (3) Journal in Q1 (not Top 10 and Top 1) | 15,000 Thai Baht/article |

If the article is published in a journal not listed in Clause 17 (1) - (3) but is included in the Nature Index journal list, it may receive a reward at the rate specified in Clause 17 (3).

The Reward may be changed according to the ceiling allocated to the Research Management and Development Division by the university.

Clause 18. Submission of the request for Reward : A person eligible to request a Reward under the Announcement shall submit a request on the website of Research Management and Development Division, <http://op.mahidol.ac.th/ra/budget-pub/>, no more than 90 days from the date the article is first published in a journal, with the following supporting documents:

- (1) Reward request form according to Clause 16 (Form No. FM-RPS-03)
- (2) Original research article or review article as specified in Clause 16 and such article is published in a journal.
- (3) Evidence of the article's Peer Review
- (4) Document of Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) proving the quartile of journals and subject category related under Clause 16.3
- (5) A letter of consent under Clause 4.2 (Form No. FM-RPS-03)

(6) A copy of appointment order or certificate specifying responsibility for research activities, in the case where a person eligible to request for grant is a full-time consultant of the faculty/ college/ institute

The University may request additional relevant documents to be submitted within the time specified by the University.

A person entitled to a Reward may distribute a Reward to all authors in the proportion agreed upon.

The University reserves the right to limit the submission of requests for the reward to no more than 25 articles per person per fiscal year.

Clause 19. Approval for Reward

19.1 Research Management and Development Division, the Office of the President, shall examine the qualifications under Clause 4 and Clause 16 and the documents under Clause 18 then propose a list of persons who are entitled for a Reward to the President or a person assigned by the President to make approval, and inform the result to the person who are entitled a Reward.

19.2 The University shall make a payment directly to a person who is entitled to a Reward.

Clause 20. If the University examines and finds that a person requesting for a Reward does not have qualifications as specified in Clause 4 or an article does not meet criteria as specified in Clause 16 or Clause 22 of the Announcement, the University reserves its right to reclaim money and expenses incurred from granting a Reward from a person requesting for a Reward.

Transitory Provisions
